(Continued from First Pages

WORLD reporter had an interview with Secretary Loveloy, of the Carnegle Iron and Steel Company (Limited this morning. Mr. Love. Gov. Pattison Notified of the Situajoy expressed himself very firmly on the situation, and declared that the Company will not yield an inch from its original posi-

"We have determined to go on with the affair to the end. There was a meeting of will be able to preserve order. the Trustees this morning at which that decision was arrived at.

"The mills will be operated as non-union mills, and under no circumstances shall we recognize the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers again.

The officers of the Amalgamated Association serve order, is generally commended. were the Chicago Aparchists."

demanding that they be indicted for the

NOT UNDER ARREST.

Pittsburg Officers Simply Protected Them-Bound for New York

ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. PITTEBURG, Pa., July 7.-The Pinkerton men were not allowed to leave the train in which They arrived here at 2 o'clock this morning.

The men are not under arrest, but are simfear violence to them should they be liberated | nst blows from the crowd while the prisoners in Pittsburg. They were fed by the authoristies, and got this morning their first meal in thirty-six hours, having been completely cut off from the boat, in which was three weeks provisions, by the vigilant workmen on the bank during the battle of yesterday.

The detectives are highly indignant at the outcome of the excursion, into which they say a content of the excursion, into which they say a content of the excursion, into which they say a content of the excursion, into which they say a content of the excursion, into which they say a content of the excursion, into which they say a content of the errow while the prisoners were of route to their temporary prison. Henry Real, William II. Leland and Grorge Giazler, of Philadelphia Roberty, N. d.: Thomas Calianian, Chicago, lead and nose cut and bruised; Promas Mailly, Jersey City, lead and nose cut and bruised; Prisoners.

outcome of the excursion, into which they say they were drawn by false representations. They supposed they were going to some point is Ohio, some of them say, and did not know their destination until they surved out the Homestead landing and the disastrous battle began.

There were sixty-two wounded men who required hospital care, and this record shows totals much larger than those of the famous riots of 1877.

The two barges, burned to the water's edge last night after the surrender of the Pinkerttons, were valued at $19,000 each, and the total loss by fire and wreek in vesterious y.

A Enthert, New York, shot in the body in the stormet.

total loss by fire and wreck in yesterony a engagement is estimated at $60,000.

Have They Been Sent to New York?

d left the matter in the hands of ris. New York;

the rioters.

The arms of the guards, who numbered about three nundred, are all in the possession of the rioters. To-day everything in the works is in possession of a large force of the strikers. Aby attempt on the part of the civil authorities to dispossess them will be met with resistance.

"Last evening I issued a general summons to ettizens to attend the meeting at w o'clock to sid in restoring order, and I also issued a large number of notices to individuals. The possession of the part of the civil authorities to dispossess them will be met with resistance.

"Last evening I issued a general summons to ettizens to attend the meeting at w o'clock to sid in restoring order, and I also issued a large number of notices to individuals. The possession of the part of the call of the large of the part of the civil authorities to dispossess them will be meet with resistance.

"Last evening I issued a general summons to ettizens to attend the meeting at w o'clock to sid in restoring order, and I also issued a large number of notices to individuals. The

Is expected at any moment. Wir. Foy, of Twelfth avenue, is fast sinking. George Retter, who has been taken to the West Penn Hoppital.

VOORHEES ATTACKS CARNEGIE.

Regrets it Wasn't the Ironmaster STORY OF THE SURRENDER. Who Led the Pinkertons.

(SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.) oros, July 7.- The resolutions offered in the Senate on the matter of the Homestead troubles were finally referred to Homestead, Pa allinger, Stewart and Sanders took part.

cipal partisan standpoints. Mr. Voorhees made a flery speech, in which were in terror of their lives, as they lay behe attributed labor difficulties to the Repub- sleged in heir trall floating fortress.

ALL REPORTED QUIET.

skuiking at his eastle in Scotland,

tion at the Mills.

bury stating that the situation at Hometeal is much improved and that the citizens

GOV. PATTISON COMMENDED.

More Blood Would Have Eeen Shed Had He Called Out the Troops.

Transferio, Pa., July 7.—The course of Gov. "Further than that, we propose to have Pattison in declining to order the National upon. The men only escaped the danger of the inchers of yesterday's riot punished. Guard to Homestead until Sheriff McCleary greater violence when they were salely had exhausted all means in his power to presslodged behind the walls of the jall. will be charged with murder, and under the prevailing opinion here is that had the milli lalaws of the State they may be punished as appeared on the scene, the blood shed would have been much greater.

The advent of the Armedand uniformed Oddly enough the leaders of the locked-out men of the State troops to guard the Carnegie workmen are clamoring to-day for retention works to act as protectors of the non-union in Pittsburg of all the Pinkerton men, and men would have excited the strikers to all possible resistance.

The men at Homestead are so well organ-murder of the men who were slaughtered in tred, are under such perfect control and are sogreat in number that a conflict between them and the militia might be a long and would certainly be a bloody one. Under these circumstances the towernor's careful survey of the state of affairs and bis conservative action call for the unqualined approval from

THE CAPTURED DETECTIVES.

Very Few of Them Escaped Without Wounds of Some Sort.

INV ASSOCIATED PRASS. they were brought from Homestead last night | PITTSBURG, Pa., July 1.-The following is a complete list of the Pinkertons brought from Homestead early this morning. The wounds noted, except gun-shot wounds, ply under the protection of the police, who were received from clubs, bricks, stones and head hirt.

J. Emintett, New York, shot in the body in three places with buckshot and struck on that arm with club, not seriously improdupative waish Troy, N. Y., struck on left legand right eye, badly hurt; J. Jordan, Brooklyn; W. F. Hall, Unleago; George Burns, New York; P. Doran, Brooklyn; Fred Wilson, Chickens, 1997.

hausted, and left the matter in the hands of the Governor.

The Sheriff's despatch to the Governor is worded as follows:

"Last night I went to Homestend accompanied by officials of the Amargamated Association, and succeeded in bringing away the guards sent up river, who had surrendered to the rioters.

New York, badly cut unner left eye: G. horsy tork, vork, left eye Prinsed; in New York, left eye bruked and head out; Mart Walte, Chicago; Neil Mark, Chicago; Edward Mitsiead, Chicago; edward Mitsiead, Chicago; edward Mitsiead, Chicago; mouth territive to insed and theorems and incompanies of the rioters.

to sid in restoring order, and I also issued a large number of notices to individuals. The result up to moon to-day is thirty-two persons have reported, all without arms.

"They have been notified to appear to-morrow morning at vocices, and I have issued several additional notices to individuals, summoning them to appear at the same time. These notices will be served to-day.

"I am satisfied from present indications that I will be unable to obtain any considerable force, and the force thus gathered with, out discipline and arms, will be no use whatever. As soon as any effort is made to take possession of the property another outbreak will occur."

Three of the libjured Homestrad workers are in a dangerous condition and their death is expected at any moment. Why, Poy, of Tweifth avenue, is fast singling, the corrected.

liospital, is also in a critical way. Richardson Durham is in a sinking condition. The others are resting easier to-day and it is thought will get better.

Durham is in a sinking condition. The others are resting easier to-day and it is thought will get better.

Durham is the activity of the condition of the wound in left knee, slight bajury.

.

The Pinkerton Men Stripped of Arms and Permitted to Land.

the Committee on Contingent Expenses, to last evening, after nearly twelve hours of the most bloody warfare, that the locked-out treaties were not heeded. Many of them had which Senators Palmer, Voorhees, Hale, geance, were prevailed upon to allow the Pinkerton forces, which had been imprisone The Pinkerton force was denounced and de- all day long in their barges in the river, to fended and the case reviewed from both prin- surrender, and permitted them to land. During all this time the armed detectives lican policy of high protection, and expressed. Hundreds of dynamice bomos had been regret that Mr. Carnegle latuseif had not been thrown at the barges, burning oil surrounded at the head of the Pankerton squad instead of them, and all sorts of attempts were made to scattle or born the boats. Every moment t was expected that the craft would be sunk or would burst into flames, and the entire band of merceparies perish before the eyes of their merciless assailants.

The mon on the shore only accepted the inv Associated Press. | surrender when it seemed impossible to reach Hamistone, Pa., July 7.—Gov. Pattison the Planetton barges with busing oil and it received a telegram this morning from Pitts was found that the bombs were not large enough to do any serious damage.

Even after the surrender the thirst for year geance are med to be just as keen as before among the infurlated populace of Homestead and as the Pinkerton men left the barges and marched through the principal street of the town to the fall they were followed by a hooting, yelling crowd of men, wom n and childrep, who poured cura's upon them and kepup a continual volley of sticks and stones and was missiles that they could lay their hands

A TRUCK AT LAST.

It was nearly 6 o'clock when Hugh O'Don nell and Jack Clifford, with other leaders of the workmen, went down to the shore opposite the barge Monongabela, waving white handkerchiefs, the first signs of a truce that had received from their assailants. had been given by the besieging parts since rowd which passed close behind them, surg- scramble the best way they could. ing down upon the banks and cheering and abouting as the detectives came into view. " Kill them; kill the murderers!" they to save them, but in vain. yelled. "We ought not to accept their surrender. In response to the flag of truce several Pinkerton men appeared on the deck of the nearer barge, but it was some time before the leaders in the conference could make themseives heard, the shouting of the crowds made such a terrine din.

Capt. Cooper who was one of the first to come forward and make himself heard, said that he was the leader of the Pinkerton men and that all they wanted was to be allowed to leave the boat with their lives.

He said there were 250 men in the party and that in addition to those who had been half a dozen others on board who had been dangerously wounded and whose condition the men on in their terrible work. was critical.

said, and he declared most solemnly that he men for the Carnegle mills.

them protection from the crowds if they would surrender their arms, and promised that the wounded men should be sent to the Lospital and would receive proper care.

THE PINKERTONS COME ASHORE. This arrangement was accepted at once, in groups about them.

The more violent of the workmen jostied, with fright and believing that they would be almost gave up his life about Two strikers never get through the mob that was waiting for them on the shore with their fives. They were reasoured, however, by the leaders of the men and finally the task of were so frenzied that they could hardly be violence offered to the prisoners was not to be a kept urging them to remain so Pinkertons with their revolvers and shots when they first al-embarked from the barge badges !

and with a feeble attempt at wit said he kept them away, and escorted the guards to would take off his coat, too, if the crowd the Opera-House link, where they were wanted him to.

'Yes, take off your coat?' they yelled back | tory to the arrival of the Sheriff. at him, and in such a tone that he know they

The women and children, however, folineant it. The old leilow took off his coat lowed them all the way to the Rink through man, who prometly threw if into the river. | throwing at the prisoners everything which

PORCED TO RUN THE GALNELET. to the shore and up through the mill yard on stie chers, the Pinkerton detectives, *ithout avoid the second garattet, and make their single file from the barges.

As they walked down the gangplank there 6.30 train to Pittsburg. quickly spread through Homestead to brad- was with the strikers and there was checalldren came rushing on the scene. A pro- guards had surrendered, cession was formed, headed by a tail, sturdy worker, carrying an American flag. Behind him came loo men with their rides over their shoulders marching four abreast. The norme the prisoners, and a very dejected the shore: looking lot they were, too. There were many safety landed in the Opera-House Rink, chased them through the dust of the street. throwing stones and shouting to the mili-workers to kill their prisoners. cone fat, red-headed woman in a called dress crowds upon the back upon us was wrong. I was simply ding what I was paid for doing, and what in a well-fitted orag this philoloudly for vengeance on these men who had by this time. shot down the people of Homestead in cold blood. Twice the procession halted and the upon the boats all day long, the fire made guards fried to tear this woman away, but rapid progress, and the intense heat drove Sue would not be repulsed, and she tollowed the mon that from the river bank. the prisoners to the rink door, throwing stones with accurate a.m. as many a sere-headed on the muchly banks as the flames

Several of the Plakertons who had been of the river, who had stood guard all day recognized as am my the firing party of the over the cid cumpon with which the fortiess early dawn were clubbed and kicked by the of the Pinkertons had been b imbarded. excited crowd while on the march. Most of THE CAPITIERD DETECTIVES SEXT TO SITTS SERIO. them had valles, and not a lew of these were. At inidnight the Unprisoned Finkerton de-wrenched from their hands and kicked about tectives were taken to Fitisburg under a the streets like footballs, the cichning and strong guard by sheriff Mccleary, of Alleother articles as they led out being eagerly guery County. No attempt was made to santched on by the women as trophles of the molest the prisoners on their way to the

As they came to the top of the bank they had to pass through a narrow passageway between great tiles of rusty pig iron. Here gave itself up to the wildest rejoicing. the infurlated mob were waiting for them. and as soon as the head of the column ap- PREPARING FOR THE INQUESTS. peared the mob fell upon them like a pack of

They were attacked with clubs, fists and showers of stones, and a general meice followed, in which some of the detectives were

Thomas Weidon and an unknown Hungarian. For a distance of hearly 600 yards, there. No time has yet been fixed for the inquest,

> LET ASSOCIATED PRESS. PITTBURG, Pa., July 7 .- Capt. William B. Rodgers, who was reported dead after the battle at Homestead, was a very live man when he came back to Pittsburg on the Little Bill. He went direct to his office, on Water kicks from all sides. Then he started to run, Homestead and was on hand with the tow-and as he did a blow from a blood-stained boat Little Bill Menday night to do the work. club laid him lew. Two men ran to him and The barges had been at the landing below escorted him safely through the rest of the the Manchester docks, and according to our escaped the gauntiet found those who were and commanded the strictest attention to his shot or raise his piece without positive and | Search was made of every chard who fell distinct orders. There will be no trouble at into the hands of the crowd for concealed Homestead, and we won't make any. business is to keep the peace, not to disturb it.

went forward to tie up the shore barge, while the Pinkerton men began to shove out a At the outer gate there was another gaunt. landing plank. The people on the bank were disembarking was begun. It was difficult be formed, but the mob there was composed awfully excited, but the men under me and and dangerous work, for the men on shore mostly of women and small boys, and the the Plakertons were perfectly quiet, and I sed awfully excited, but the men under me and

Just before the detectives started across with an almost flendish deafre to tear the were flying from the other side. I store peak the gangplank some were seen to be carrying. Pinkertons limb from limb, and they then had [tively that the men on shore commenced the

a man with a revolver made a dash for its the Homestead trouble. white mustache, unphased his nickel star, workmen armed with rides and revolvers uring all the white. The Pinkertons tried to push him back, and about succeeded when few Pinkertons. The people fired directly at the Pinkerrons; they bred all over the barges | The Shooting Denounced as a " Savand at the Little Bill. "Then the l'inkertous opened quite a rusilseveral of his men rushed out to where h by to defend him. He was then carried into the turge. The dring continued steadily.

dock, across the river, and the women and the everywhere when it was learned that the Loat the party of Pinkertons who were taking care of the wounded. The boat was brought looking lot they were, too. There were many sentiles and scriminages before they were safely landed in the opera-flower Rink, which was to serve as their lath. Women holding her hands high in the air, shricked bornesd with a flerce glare, for it was dark any one else would do. Even when we were Honaire did his best to convince our work-Aided by the oil, which had been poured

Most of the Pinkerton Men Came

from There More to Leave. INTIASSO IATED PRPORT

ton men on the parges the steamer Little bill outrages and murders in Homestead." towed down the Monongahela at daybreak yesterday were from Chicago. One nundred and twenty-live men, in command of J. G. from Homestead all trouble and bloodshed After the surrender of the Pinkerton on rd Hoffman, a clerk in the Pinkerton agency, would have been averted, left this chy Sunday night over the Pennsyl vanta road for Homestend.

There were about twenty-five regular Pinkmen who are not in the employ of the agency, [BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
PITTSBURG, Pa., July 7.—Hober Methowell, Pinkerton agency Sunday evening, ready for were bleeding from the wounds waich they Peter Farris, John E. Morris, Henry Stiegel, made that even the railroad officials did not notice anything out of the ordinary.

> RODGERS'S STORY OF THE FIGHT. The Captain of the Little Bill Says the East at Pittsburg, but only a few of them the Pinkertons Behaved Well.

street, where he answered telephone calls what was awaiting him and he burst into and told the people he was still alive. He Knights of Labor, No. 24 passed the following Instructions we went to Davis Island dam.

nously hooting at the Pinkertons and urging peating rifles and blue uniforms with them. | and, ply went into the barges and stayed there.

The captain in charge called the men to him Congress to investigate the said trouble, and be it other leaders to keep the z off, and the work. not weaken. With a mighty effort he re-non jeered at the prisoners as they gathered leaded himself and ran like a greyhound went back, relieved her of the barge and went through the yard. He was pursued by a hun-dred mea. Finally he stumbed and the mob-we reached Homestead there seemed to be

> The people then began to fire upon us. took him by the arms, and bathed in blood We tried to make a landing then. My men

In the midst of it all the Pinkerton captain swore vengeance upon any man who House Committee to Report the would attempt to shoot, although the balls | Resolution Favorably.

"I was told to assist with the steamerton specials in the party. The others were | Carnegie's shops at Homestead are here to xcept when an occasion like this demands trades and induce them not to handle the they should be sent out of town. These men output of the Carnegic mills if the latter ot regulars," were ordered to report at the employ non-union men.

Upon one hand is ranged the strength of apital of $25,000,000.

Battle at Homestead. The conflict at Homestead vesterday marks particularly bloody stage in the struggle for supremacy between the strongest organi-bank of $250,000, and hundreds of thousands

The actual point at issue is the right of it will consent to be employed or to per all. Fordham. the part of the Carnegle Steel Company to make such working terms as it deems appli-cable to the present condition of the steel Cheever place. usiness and the mechanical improvements effected in the process of manufacture. CRIGIN OF THE TROUBLE.

The condition of affairs has arisen out of the expiration of a three years' sliding scale of wages in operation at the Homestead entered the building. Works of the Company and the action of the Company in substituting another with marked reductions in rates. The homestead employees have been paid dark-looking room. by the tennage. Settlements during the last three years have been based on the selling price of steel billets, the minimum basis belag $25 per ton; that is, no matter how ments were to be made accordingly. tlements with the men have been made at quietly. $25, and, of course, at a loss of the difference to the Company.

CARNEGIE'S SCALE OF WAGES. In anticipation of the expiration of the three years' scale on June 30, the Carnegle watchman Steel Company formulated a schedule of races to operate from July 1 to Jan. 1, 1894. The minimum basis was changed from $25 to $22. expected to be sent to Pitisburg.

of employment. The workers on the other side presented the company with a scale which differed previously fixed June 24 as the last day open to the workers for accepting the scale as an organized body. After that date the men were to be treated with only as individuals. That day passed without approaches from either side, and both parties began forthwith to prepare for the struggle that was bound to fol-He Consults with Secretary Elkins on July 1, when the old sliding scale of wages had expired. But this course was anticipated by private office of Supt. Lange.

for President Harrison to cancel his trip to at midnight and notified them to report for the Adirendacks without risking the health their pay at the office on Saturday last. By of Mrs. Barrison, it is said he would have this action the Carnegier forestailed the men. and, by making it a lockout instead of a He was greatly alarmed over the serious strike, placed them on the defensive. turn which affairs at Homestead had taken MILE HANDS PREFARED FOR THE STRUGGLE-prior to his departure from the capital, and The discharged employees, through their rotection of outside labor.

dosed for two or three weeks.

by the proposed new scale.

PRESIDENT PRICE'S CALL FOR HELP.

ENLISTING PINKERTONS.

Fight Yesterday Were Hired Here.

It became known this morning that many

For the past week the Pinkerton agency

the alleged purpose of going to Buffalo as watchmen. A number of ex-p licemen were

WORLD reporter by an ex-policeman

Broadway.

good pay was promised.

trouble between the workings and the milition was thorough, consisting of sub-commit-It is said that he has nad serious misgiv- tees on the preservation of order, the regulalogs as to the outcome of the trouble from tion of the sale of liquor in saleons and the

the beginning.

Resolution Favorably. INV ASSOCIATED PRESS. | Washingron, July 7 .- The House Judiciary Committee has ordered a favorable report to duction of workingmen from a distance, and course, intensely interested in the progress be made on the Williams resolution pro-

HOW POWDERLY LOOKS AT IT.

age Butchery." IAL TO THE EVENING WO

"The Pinkerton captain, while in front of thinks that the employment of Pinkerton de- and running the r' to of finding their places the Carnegie Company.

ATTRIBUTE IT TO THE TARIFF. Comment of English Newspapers on the Tragedy at Homestead.

THY ASSOCIATED PRESS.1
LONDON, July 7.-Mr. Andrew Carnegie, at

A Big Mass-Meeting Called and Pinkertonism Denounced.

IRPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, I

PHILADELPHIA, July 7 .- The labor organiza say that had the Pinkertons been kept away

ARRANGING FOR A BOYCOTT. Chicago, July 7. - Thomas A. Campbell and has been advertising and hunting up men for a committee of locked-out employees from confer with the leading men in the building impring to the results to the service works. In order to make as little demonstration as other building trade organizations in the stead last evening for the purpose of prepartice of prepartice of prepartice of prepartice of the sevening after nearly twelve hours of the sevening after nearly twelve hours of the They acroamed for mercy, but their ended of the feature of the man went to the station in two ones to all the other large Western cities it is said day. He had the engaging of the men and for

ORIGIN OF THE TROUBLE.

About forty men left Monday morning it charge of Heln, and they first went to Buffalo.

Juffalo.
Among them were John Lutz, a tas, sandy.

several days last week he selected his men street, whose head was cut; George A. Hess, J. Radus, of 334 East Pifty-fourth street labor to dictate to capital the terms on which Second street, and William F. Conner, of anybody to be employed. Ostensibly it is a struggle against a reduction in wages of 30 per cent. of 250 workers, and an attempt on > Broadway this morning. They were a suspicious looking lot and they curloudy scanned the faces of everybody that

When an Evening Wonto reporter alighted from the elevator on the fourth floor be found that room 46 was locked. It was

There was nothing on the door to indicate the character of the pusiness carried on within.

As a was used as the Pinkerton employment bumetric of fact billets have been seiting for rean for the itemsstead trouble, but the several months at $22 and $22.50, while set— work of hiring the mea was carried on very > suspicion, but finally admitted that he had come to the building to secure work as a He said that he was well aware that he was going into the employ of the Pinkertons, and "I am not a bit scared," he said. "We are promised $2 per day, with food, and I don't think that there is much danger of a repeothers were also from the same place.

The liveliest kind of hustic and excitement pervaded the general offices of the l'inkerten Agency on Exchange place, which is only a stone's throw from their annex at 41 Broadway. Despite the extraordinary active condition of affairs, the office had lest

When Tite Evening Women reporter enlow. The tered the office there were a hair dozen men, apparently recruits, sitting on a tench in the main office walting to be ushered into the > trouble at Homestead lest his work to intorm Mr. Robert Pinkerton of the re orter's pres The cie is darted into a private office and returned in the course of a minute. " Both

The clerk could not tell whether there any intelligence concerning the condition of the injured men, and be professed equal ignorance as to the likelihood fany more men being sent to Homestead. BITTER AGAINST PINKERTONS.

the Detectives Should Be Wiped Out. the Homestead Works to prevent the intro-Workingmen in and about the city are, of night, while twenty members of the Associa- now going on at ill mestead.

news of the battle between the Pinkertons had been closed for repairs, and would remain | Fromtoent labor lenders express their opinhade on the people. As they did this they re- tomana, July 7.-T. V. Powderly, who has About July 15 or 20, he further stated, it Samuel Compers, President of the Americeived a deadly fire from over their heads.

Some people and stationed themselves upon with the labor leaders there, characterizes players of the company could return to work.

About any 1.5 of the labor of Labor: "It is unfortunged that any of the eld employees of the company could return to work. the water tower and snot right down. I was the Homestead tragedy as a "savage but must make application by a certain day at richnestead was spilled by Pinkerton men. standing in the midst of them and one or two butchery." He says the men were in the as individuals; all who did not apply by that There was no necessity for the conflict,

Matters at Homestead progressed with ton invaders are cutthroats and the scum of comparative quiet until Monday, when Henry society. They are neither more nor less than the advance g and to an army of Hungarians company, applied to Sheriff McCleary, of and Poles, who will be imported to take the to and the wounded put upon it. We went to Turtie Creek and put them on train. My rentract was then ended and I started for heme.

"Then it was that our boat was the target for all the guns of the crowd. Ballets whistled like rain through the cable, pilothouse and engine-room. My watchman was shot. The people fired upon us until we got out of their reach, and then the builets splashed in the water.

The flute of the wounded put upon it. We went to Turtie Creek and put them on train. My sections for all though the cable, pilothouse and engine-room. My watchman was splashed in the water.

The flute of the wounded put upon it. We went to Turtie Creek and put them on train. My whose steel works at Homestead, a., the project of the Company, and protection for the wage-earunce of Scotland. Be cannot be reached to-day.

The should not be controlled to take the project of the Company, and protection for the wage-earunce of the company of the company, and protection for the wage-earunce of the works under a gand furnished by the Amatgamated Association, and later in the day despatched eleven deputies to Homestead, under command of ex-sheriff Cluny, by whom an attended to take the project of the works under a gand furnished by the Amatgamated Association, and later in the day despatched eleven deputies to Homestead, under command of ex-sheriff Cluny, by whom an attended to take the project of the works under a gand furnished by the Amatgamated Association, and later in the day despatched eleven deputies to Homestead, under command of ex-sheriff Cluny, by whom an attended to take the project of the works under a gand furnished by the Amatgamated Association, and later in the day despatched eleven deputies to Homestead, under command of ex-sheriff Cluny, by whom an attended to take the project work, but stood in tear of boding and analysis to the works under a gand furnished by the Amatgamated Association, and later in the day despatched eleven deputies to Homestead in testisting the landing of the company applied to Saeri preclamation calling upon the people of Homestead to preserve the peace and not molest the Company's property. detestation of the Pinkerton force." Gus Adams, of the Brooklyn Varnishers' > down like dogs." Laborers, remarked that the use of dynamite against the detectives was right, of the 300 Pinkerton men who were sent to of Carpenters and Joiners: "The conduct of the scene of the trouble at Homestead were Pinkerton's men has made it a duty of Amerengaged for their perilious work at 61 lean citizens to shoot them down when engaged in such acts as they are guilty of at the Carnegle Iron Works, as they would shoot housebreakers or highway robbers. Delegate Frank W. Balmes, of the United

Wood-Carvers-The conduct of Pinkerton

Here is a postal card shown to an Eventson "DEAR SIR: Call at No. 61 Broadway, room 46, Sunday, July 3, at 10 o'clock, with-out fail. Bring this with you."F. H. HEIN."

solicited to join the ranks and exceptionally detectives is outrageous. It is awful to think of the children of Hamborg, will detail the cir-cumstances of a family of twelve living in a cellar. They cannot afford 25 cents a term for the in-The Hein who signed his name to the struction of a daughter with a voice. Tell your newsdealer to save you a copy of the Sunday

SCENE OF THE FIGHT.

was a regular gauntlet formed, through Even these men were followed by a hooting which the terror-stricken Pinkertons had to The leaders could not do anything with the > wd and the poll o at the steel works tried When a man reached the top of the bank he would receive a blow from a club which would knock him down. When he got up he always ran and blows from clubs and fists rained on his unprotected head. CRYING AND BEGGING FOR MERCY. one young fellow, with blanched face, saw tears. Dropping to his kness he begged for gave the following account of the trip: mercy, but he was soon raised to his feet by Women, too, were in the line, and they plied

Further along the victims of the mob who willing to protect them from further violence, but they had uttle influence upon the mob, whose only destre was for vengeance.

This arrangement was accepted at on-e, and o'Donnell and several others went aboard to make preparations for the landing of the Pinkertons. The barges were soon crowded with Homestead men, in spite of the several of the was cornered and a low lock No. 1, when the Tide, which was efforts of O'Donnell and Clifford and the cocked rille was held at his head. Still he did towing one of the barges, broke her cams. the more violent of the workmen jostica, was upon bin in an instant. His pointshinent considerable excitement. As we got nearer moduled in the corners of the baryes, shaking was terrible. He gave up the revolver and the excitement grew more intense.

restraine I from firing into the raises of the compared with that which they encountered The women, however, seemed possessed "Throw away your guns!" shouted an opportunity to relieve their pent up rage, illring. men on the bank. "Tear off your They heaped cathe and curses upon the prisoners and tried to beat and scratch them One of the detectives, an' old fellow with a as they came through the gate, but a ban to and staggering, he was led away.

A MOR OF TRESTIED WOMEN.

placed for a time to a place of safety, preparawith alacrity and handed it to a Homestead the streets, using the vitest profanity and came within their reach. The escort of When the wounded men had been carried and workmen carried large American Bags and were preceded by a band of music.

their guns or their uniforms, came forth in way to the failroad desoi, where they concented themselves in the crowd, and took the were groans and curses from the crowd which the formed in double likes through which the train, cots having been placed in the baggage prisoners passed. Word of the surrender had car for them. All the sympathy of the people

> THE BARGES SET ON PIECE As soon as the Pinkerton guards and left the barges there was a cry from the mob on " Burn the boats ! !

applied to the olf-soaked wood of the two The flames burst out simultaneously from splashed in the water, each, and a great shout went up from the

They shouted like with Ludians, and danced Pinkerton detective will testify to-night. shift upward, and their cheers were an-CLUBBED AND KICKED BY THE CROWDS. Swered by the crowds on the other side

A Pittsburg Coroner Views the Dead at Homestead.

nstructions we went to Davis Islams, dam.

There we met about 300 men—I suppose they are Phaerions—and they hounded the wounded previously in the day and had been clubs and stones as vigorously as did the new they are l'inactions—and they boutded the temporal by the tug little Billy there were they made more noise, for they were continued to the they made more noise, for they were continued to the they made more noise, for they were continued to the tug little Billy there were the noise noise, for they were continued to the tug little Billy there were the noise noise, for they were continued to the tug little Billy there were the noise nois We lest no time and started for Homestead.

> 6 No man, said he, will dare to fire one aid to the men in the struggle for justice, done so

" By this time the landing plank had been cotten on. As the men were about to land, viting for a Congressional investigation of we more tellowed him, overpowering the was shot. He was the test blob group to tall fair-tainded people.

SENT FROM CHICAGO.

They were the subject of a lively debate in workmen, hair craced with a desire for venture strong their clothing stripped from their

The train arrived in Pittsburg Monday morning, and the men were marched to the agency's headquarters. Another carload cf Pinkertons went from this city Monday night There were 150 or 200 Pinkerton men from were on the barge. It is reported that about 200 more Pinkertons will leave here for Pitts burg to-day.

K. OF I. MEN ON THE FIGHT.

A Chicago Assembly Promises Moral and Financial Aid to the Millmen. INT ASSOCIATED PRESS. 1

Wherens, A serious struggle has been precipitated in the Homestead Iron Works in Pennsyl-

July 7. - District Assembly,

Whereas, It has come to the notice of D. A. 24, the company with a scale which the first through the public press, that hostilities slightly from the old one. On a confer-have commenced by the said Pinkerton men fring cance both sides hade concessions, but parted The only guards that were not assaulted on the working a declared most solemnly that he with how is and cries that must have made feetly sober. They made no noise: they similar, therefore,

> PRESIDENT HARRISON WORRIED. About the Homestead Riots. IMPERIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

was in consultation with Secretary Elkins in Advisory Committee, Legan at once arrangeto the means of preventing further ments for the protection of their interests

FOR A HOMESTEAD INQUIRY.

splashed in the water.

"If the people could only look at the case the right way, they would agree that the attack upon us was wrong. I was simply doing what I was paid for dobes, and what any one case would do. Even when we were leaving the people kept firing upon us.

"Let me say again that the clinkertons behaved will. They were fired upon first and attacked when they were doing nothing, even before they touched the shore. They had to fire to defend themselves and their captain."

In the record could not be disorders. The slide, in an article on the disorders. The slide is the clinker work as making a tour of England workers are not members of the Knights of would not be against their interests. A nounced workers are not members of the Knights of would not be permitted to enter, but would be safely escorted out of the town. They were fired upon first and attacked when they were doing nothing, even before they touched the shore. They had to fire to defend themselves and their captain."

PHILADELPHIA WORKMEN ASTIR

The Globe, in an article on the disorders. They speckesman stepped forward, and destarts the mill property was not in dunger that the admission of the deputtes workers are not members of the Knights of would not be permitted to enter, but would be safely escorted out of the town. They were secorted to a point on the river a quarter of a point on the river against their interests. A nounced to stand aside.

The Globe, in an article on the disorders. They worker is the mill property was not in dunger and that the admission of the deputtes workers are not members of the Knights of the tuning that the willing from twhen commanded to stand aside.

There sto Mr. Carnegie, saying:

"When he was making a tour of England grand that the admission of the deputtes would not be permitted to enter, but would be safely secored out of the town. They but would be safely secored out of the town. They but would be safely secored out of the two didners. They but would be safely secored out of the two didners. They were tions of this city have called a mass-meeting Many of the Men in the Homestead at the Broad street plaza for te-morrow even ing "to denounce the Pinkerton-Carnegie The leaders of the labor organizations here stead last evening for the purpose of prepar- In order to make as little demonstration as other building trade organizations in this in room 46, on the fourth flow of 61 Broad Events that Led Up to the Bloody mustached man of forty, who gave his ad-ore s as 343 West Sixtleth street; he was shot ation or steel workers in the country on one in the groin and in the head and seriously zation of steel workers in the country on one hard in the Homestead fight yesterday, side and the largest individual steel manufacture.

William McKinney, of 150 West Sixteenth

the Amaigamated Association of Iron and of 500 Grand Street; John Southwell, Steel Workers of the United States, an organization 30,000 strong, with a balance in of 252 West Twenty-fourth street: more in reserve, and on the other the pres. Charles McGonigle, of 124 East Sixteenth tige, power and wealth of the Carnegie Steel street; William Kochler, of 423 East Company (Limited), the new title of the asso.

Twenty-ninth street; Robert Campbell, of Company (Limited), the new title of the asso-clated interests of the Carnegie firms, with a Southern Boulevard; William and James Newman, of 107 East One Hundred and

There were also these Brooklyn men : James of 51 Harrison avenue; C. Travers, of 68 Meeker avenue, and William Plunkett, of 81

A group of swarthy-looking young men were standing in front of the building 61

Inquiry in the building disclosed the fact belog $25 per ton; that is, to support that the room was occupied only for much the market price ran below $25, pay. that the room the days an hour during the day. A number ments were to be made on the basis of that an hour during the day. A number may of the tenants knew that the room > conversed with a young man who was one of the group. He at first eyed the reporter with

The reporter on his way out of the building

tition of yesterday's trouble." The would-be l'inkerton watchman said be was from Brooklyn, and a majority of the Washington, July 7. - Had it been possible the firm, which discharged all its employees of clipping from newspapers accounts of the none of its air of mystery.

Mr. Pinkerton and Mr. Laugs beg to be excused. They have nothing to say to the press," was the young man's auswer.

Headquarters were fitted up in elaborate style, with incandescent electric lights and private telegraph wire, which put the Amal-Local Labor Leaders Declare that ramated Association in direct communication with every city, town and hamlet in the country. Guards were established around tion were placed on duty as special officers. The it and or Walking Delevates met ves ostensibly charged with the duty of preserv- terday afterneon and excitedly discussed the Immediately after the Eckout the Secre- and the workmen. They adopted a resolutary of the Carnegie Steel Company made the tion expressing sympathy with the strikers announcement that the mills at Homestead and hope for their ultimate success.

right, and it was a battle for bread. He time being considered as not desiring work which was provoked, and without cause, by his men trying to clear the janoing plank, lectives in this case will be condecaned by all, filled by new men. The Secretary Jurther of Jegard the attempted entrance of Pinkstated that only 25d of the 3.800 men cm- error employees as an invasion of the rights pleyed in the Homestead Mills were affected of the dwellers in Homestead most of whom have lived and worked there for years, and are owners of their own houses. The Pinker-

Union-" The sympathy of humanity has been enlisted in the cause of tollers shot Delegate John Quine, of the Plasteters'

Charles Schlicht, of the United Brotherhood

Nell Nelson, in next Sunday's WORLD, writing